1ST JULY WELCOME RECEPTION

The Welcome Reception will be held at the Glasgow Science Centre, situated in the heart of Glasgow on the banks of the river Clyde. Striking with its titanium clad structures, as well as the Science Mall, it features an Imax theatre and the Glasgow tower.

The centre aims to showcase Scotland's contribution to science and technology, past, present and future. The Glasgow Science Centre is a five minute walk from the SECC across the river Clyde.

2ND JULY ANNUAL DINNER

The Annual Dinner will be held at the Kelvingrove Art Gallery, a striking building set in the beautiful surroundings of Kelvingrove Park.

The Gallery was re-opened in 2006 after a £28 million refurbishment and is the most visited museum and art gallery in the United Kingdom outside London. Kelvingrove Art Gallery houses over 8000 exhibits and has one of Europe's finest civic art collections.

GLASGOW

Named as the top UK city in the Tripadvisor Travellers' Choice Destinations on the Rise 2012, Glasgow is one of Europe's most exciting destinations. Glasgow combines the energy and sophistication of a great international city with some of Scotland's most spectacular scenery. As a delegate in Glasgow you can experience:

- More than 20 museums and art galleries offering free admission
- The best shopping in the UK outside of London's West End
- The works of world renowned architect & designer, Charles Rennie Mackintosh
- An outstanding choice of restaurants and bars

GLASGOW IS EASY TO GET TO

- 40 return flights from London per day
- Only one hour travel by air from London
- Direct flights to Glasgow Airport from Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, East Midlands, Exeter, Leeds/Bradford, Manchester and Southampton
- 20 direct trains per day from London
- Journey time from London just 4.5 hours

GLASGOW IS EASY TO GET AROUND

The city is compact and easy to get around on foot or by the extensive transport network of buses, trains and underground linking the conference venue with hotels and tourist attractions.
